Jane also submitted a packet of Hankin Development correspondence: December 13, 2005, January 11, 2006, and December 2005.

Lester Davidson's funeral report/program/obituary. Sandy asked for photograph of Lester for our files.

Beverly's book, The Birds are in the Sugar Bowl, was returned to her from the files at her request.

The Soto book, Mines and Minerals, was returned to the archives from the Township Office.

Harold Miller donated weather vanes (2 horses, 1 cow) and lighting rods with hardware. Also a photocopy of the advertisement pertaining to the lightning rods and a large glass display case.

Sharon Rent requested information from the archives pertaining to her house on Devereux Road. Jane will provide information for her.

Sandy still has not heard from Sally Galt Riddle about the photograph of the Cornog Quarry.

ORAL HISTORY – No report.

Sandy has written to Kenny Comstock and asked him to get in contact with Isabelle for an interview of his life in Glenmoore.

OLD BUSINESS

There will be a meeting by the Zoning Hearing Board on the proposed Cell Tower on December 6th. Michael Crotty, our solicitor, has been exchanging emails with Jane. Jane will testify. The strategy on behalf of the Historical Commission is appropriate. The applicant has to do an archaeology report, when the research has been done. Has it been done?

Where is the Date Stone from the Springton Road Bridge? Betty Randzin, Township Secretary, gave us an update on the bridge, and both Springton Road bridges will open on November 24th. The Date Stone is placed in a wingwall built with the original stones of the Bridge. It is very prominent.

The Commission will get back on track with the Atlas in a work session on January 18, 2011.

NEW BUSINESS – None

Meeting adjourned at 9:04 PM. Motion made by Jennifer, seconded by Isabelle .

Respectfully submitted,

Beverly L. Bock, Secretary
