PERMANENT COLLECTION

Pictures and notice of Wallace Township 1881 Glen Dale Schoolhouse up for sale in the Daily Local News, August 7th.

Funeral program of Pearl Mae Miller at the Glenmoore United Methodist Church on August 13.

OLD BUSINESS

Sandy reported our copier was returned from the Township office and is available for our use. Also we request from Betty Randzin a new supply of envelopes with the Historical Commission return address. Sandy has looked into used file cabinet availability and has found some for around $550.00. We will request an extra key to our cabinet in the meeting room where we will store the keys to all our cabinets.

NEW BUSINESS

The Indiantown School Reunion will be held on September 18th at the Glenmoore United Methodist Church. Sandy reported that Harold Miller is making an album of Indiantown School for his own project and has requested copies of pictures of some of the Indiantown School teachers.. Harold can copy the pictures from our files. Sandy asked if the Historical Commission would give him our permission to copy the pictures. Discussion of reproductive rights. We decided that all of the pictures are beyond the date for permission for reproduction rights. We request to be noted on the photos - "They are copied with permission of the Wallace Township Historical Commission." Jennifer made the motion and Janet seconded.

Keri Grintz contacted Sandy about making copies of post cards from our archives. More information is needed from her. As to how many she would like and for what purpose.

Sandy met with Perry Desmond of the Downingtown Historical Society on July 27. He is researching for information on the D&L Railroad, and we have some in our files.

Jane asked that we prepare a resolution on Roz Brewster to present to the Board of Supervisors in honor of her service to the township. Motion made, Jennifer approved, and seconded by Janet.

The Glenmoore Village Task Force received a Recognition Award of Lifetime Achievement from the Chester County Historic Preservation Network on June 21, 2011.

Next meeting of The Chester County Historic Preservation Network is Saturday, October 8 at the Brandywine River Museum. The program will be a follow-up on Section 106 – Transportation. Full breakfast, $15.00.

Respectfully submitted,

Beverly L. Bock, Secretary
