

The monthly meeting of the Wallace Township Historical Commission was held on Monday, May 22, 2006 at the Indiantown Schoolhouse at 7PM. Present were: Isabelle Blank, Beverly Bock (Chairman), Jane Davidson, Elaine McGrew and Bonnie Radford.

The April minutes were accepted as corrected.

CORRESPONDENCE: 1 – Light Impressions. 2 – National Trust for Historic Preservation receipt for $50. 3- Letter to Diane Houseknect from Bev Bock. 4 – Town Tours and Village Walk brochure for 2006. 5 – CCHS Bloomin! History Summer Celebration June 8-10, 2006.

Sandy Brannon and Jane Davidson will meet at the Schoolhouse to choose the slides for the presentation in the Glenmoore Methodist Church basement on Sat. 6-24-06 at 11AM and 1:30 PM for Community Day.

SUPERVISORS MEETING: Isabelle reported that Omnipoint is submitting a plan for a 190' monopole at the Turnpike plaza in Wallace Township.

PLANNING COMMISSION: No report.

ORAL HISTORY: No report.

CCHS: No report.

PHOTOGRAPHY: No report.

PERMANENT COLLECTION: Daily Local News articles including the one about the Indian Run Girl Scout Camp on 5-3-06. The developers have applied for a $750,000 grant to preserve 130 acres of the tract.

NEW BUSINESS: Thomas DiOttavio came to discuss his historic home at 1464 Creek Rd. He showed photographs of the back of the house with an addition that has deteriorated. He wants to demolish this and build an addition matching the Greek Revival style of the house. His architect is Dale Frens. Jane asked him to send the WTHC a letter describing his plan with the scope of activity. The Commission will prepare a response.

OLD BUSINESS: 1- Houseknect – see correspondence. 2 – Harkins: Jennifer submitted a report of a meeting at Elaine's house. See copy included. 3 – Proposed Elementary School. Building activity will be delayed. 4 – Jane Davidson's report – attached.

Jane asked Roz, Isabelle and Elaine to go to CCHS to review the Reid File and the clipping file about Devereux.

The Field Survey of historic resources will continue on 5-24-06 and 6-5-06.

Jean Bellis and Barbara Greenfield are work on a decision for placement of the plaque received for Seminary School from the Mormons and another one from the Glenmoore Presbyterian Church. There will be a letter of investigation of placement and necessary Penn Dot sight distance requirements. The WTHC moved, seconded and approved a recommendation for placement of the plaques at the Church.

The meetin was adjourned at 8:50 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Elaine McGrew – acting secretary
